Contents

Foreword by Mr. Philippe Courard, Belgian Secretary of State for Social Integration and Combating Poverty 9

Preface 13

1 Setting the Overall EU Context 15
   1.1 Introduction 15
   1.2 The social inclusion strand of the current Social OMC: 2000-2010 16
      1.2.1 What it is and what have been its main elements 16
      1.2.2 Main strengths and weaknesses to date 20
   1.3 EU action on poverty and social exclusion post-2010 23
      1.3.1 Clear EU social objectives supported by EU and national social outcome targets 24
      1.3.2 Rigorous benchmarking, monitoring and evaluation 26
      1.3.3 Social inclusion in the Integrated Guidelines for growth and jobs 28
      1.3.4 Lisbon Treaty’s “horizontal social clause”: a call for “social mainstreaming” and for social impact assessments 30
      1.3.5 Establishing the European Platform Against Poverty 31
      1.3.6 Concentrating work around thematic issues 32
      1.3.7 Guidelines on key governance issues 33
      1.3.8 Improving links between EU social inclusion objectives and EU Structural Funds objectives 33
      1.3.9 Maintaining and strengthening NAPs/inclusion 34
      1.3.10 Greater use of harder instruments 34
      1.3.11 Enhanced exchange and learning and better communication 35

References 35

2 Child Poverty and Social Exclusion 39
   2.1 Child poverty and social exclusion in the Social OMC 39
      2.1.1 An increasingly important issue 39
      2.1.2 Why it has become a major issue 40
      2.1.3 Wide range of work on child poverty and social exclusion in the Social OMC 43
   2.2 Extent and nature of child poverty and social exclusion in the EU 47
      2.2.1 Extent 47
      2.2.2 Main groups 50
      2.2.3 Joblessness 50
2.2.4 Employment status a key factor
2.2.5 Multidimensional factors
2.2.6 Long-term effect and intergenerational inheritance
2.2.7 Groups at risk of "extreme" poverty

2.3. Nine elements to prevent and tackle child poverty and social exclusion
2.3.1 Political leadership
2.3.2 Mainstreamed and coordinated approach
2.3.3 Commitment to promoting children's rights
2.3.4 In-depth analysis supported by quality and timely data
2.3.5 Strategic evidence-based approach based on clear objectives and targets
2.3.6 Balance between universal and targeted approaches and between prevention and alleviation
2.3.7 Involvement of key actors (including children themselves)
2.3.8 Effective delivery arrangements at local level
2.3.9 Effective monitoring and reporting arrangements

2.4. A comprehensive policy framework
2.4.1 Ensuring an adequate income
2.4.2 Ensuring access to and participation in services
2.4.3 Developing effective care and protection policies
2.4.4 Promoting access to and participation in social, cultural and recreational activities

2.5. Child poverty and related policies in Belgium
2.5.1 The poverty risks of children
2.5.2 Financial support to families with children
2.5.3 Maternity and early childhood services
2.5.4 Child care and the reconciliation of work and family responsibilities
2.5.5 Education
2.5.6 Specialised youth care
2.5.7 Children's rights and participation: a blind spot
2.5.8 Concluding remarks

2.6 Conclusions and recommendations for strengthening EU action on child poverty and social exclusion
2.6.1 Clearly stated political priority in Europe 2020 agenda
2.6.2 Multi-annual work programme for EU action
2.6.3 Recommendation on child poverty and well-being
2.6.4 Mainstreaming across EU policy making
2.6.5 Strengthening data, targets, monitoring and evaluation
2.6.6 Maintaining and deepening exchange of learning
2.6.7 Improving governance and involving children

References
3 Active Inclusion

3.1 Active inclusion in the EU Social OMC

3.1.1 What is active inclusion? 107

3.1.2 Why is active inclusion a priority in the Social OMC? 108

3.1.3 What have been the main developments at EU level? 109

3.2 Extent of active inclusion approach in the EU

3.2.1 Adequate minimum income 114

3.2.2 Inclusive labour markets 119

3.2.3 Access to quality services 120

3.3 Active inclusion in Belgium

3.3.1 Minimum income: coverage, (non-)take-up, and adequacy 122

3.3.2 Access to inclusive employment 127

3.3.3 Access to quality services 131

3.4 Conclusions and recommendations for strengthening EU action on active inclusion

3.4.1 Review and Monitoring 135

3.4.2 Exchange and Learning 135

3.4.3 Linkages 135

3.4.4 Resourcing 135

3.4.5 Minimum Income 136

References 137

4 Homelessness and Housing Exclusion

4.1 HHE in the EU Social OMC

4.1.1 No commonly agreed EU definition of HHE 141

4.1.2 Why it is a major issue in the EU Social OMC 143

4.1.3 Brief summary of key work on HHE in the Social OMC 144

4.1.4 What the EU dimension adds to country’s action 145

4.2 The extent and causes of HHE across the EU 146

4.3 Necessary elements to prevent and tackle HHE

4.3.1 Governance framework 151

4.3.2 Problem definition 152

4.3.3 Problem analysis 152

4.3.4 Strategy 154

4.3.5 Delivery and implementation 155

4.3.6 Review and monitoring mechanisms 155

4.4 Key policy elements 156

4.4.1 Policies to prevent HHE 156

4.4.2 Policies to combat HHE 158

4.4.3 Policies to ensure quality housing and homeless services 160

4.5 Homelessness and housing exclusion in Belgium 164
4.5.1 Counting dark numbers 165
4.5.2 A basic rights approach 167
4.5.3 Preventing homelessness and fostering reintegration 169
4.5.4 Services for the homeless 169
4.5.5 Housing policy 170
4.5.6 Concluding remarks 176

4.6 Conclusions and recommendations for strengthening EU action on HHE 177
4.6.1 Strengthen political commitment 178
4.6.2 Multi-annual work programme 179
4.6.3 Development of national strategies 179
4.6.4 Definition, measurement and monitoring 180
4.6.5 Improving the quality of services 181
4.6.6 Exchange and learning 181

References 182

5 Making social inclusion a cornerstone of EU and Member States policies 187
5.1 Putting social inclusion at the heart of policies 188
5.1.1 EU enlargement 188
5.1.2 Liberalisation of basic services 191
5.1.3 The Lisbon Strategy 196
5.2 Building participation of all stakeholders, including the most excluded 198
5.2.1 The challenge 198
5.2.2 A brief overview of responses 199
5.3 Conclusions and recommendations 203

References 204

6 Overall conclusions 207