Contents

Part one – Introduction

1 - Inside out! Introduction
Erik J. Knorth, Margrite E. Kalverboer, Jana Knot-Dickscheit
31

2 - Two decades of research on child and family welfare in Europe and beyond. Within Eusarf, who talked about what, when, where and why?
Erik J. Knorth, A. Carien Koopmans, Marjolein Buijs-Van Nieuwenhuizen, Lutske M. Folkerts, Annemiek T. Harder, Monika Smit & Tim Tausendfreund
35

SECTION A – OVERVIEW

Part two – Exploring the ‘inside out’ perspective

3 - Inside the black box: What makes for success in care?
Ian Sinclair
41

4 - Inside the intervention: Evidence-based building blocks of effective services
Marianne Berry
44

5 - Looking inside interventions for young people with behaviour problems
Nina Biehal
47

6 - What works, when, for whom, and why? Very specific factors determine effectiveness of prevention and intervention programs for disruptive behavior problems
Bram Orobio de Castro
50
7 - Intensive home-based care: A look inside
Jana Knot-Dickscheit & Tim Tausendsfreund 53

8 - Home-based and intermediate care; how useful is additional cognitive-behavioural therapy?
Friedrich Linderkamp 58

9 - Foster care and kinship care for vulnerable children and young people:
Some key evidence and issues
Robbie Gilligan 61

10 - Development and mental health of children in residential care
Jorge F. del Valle 64

11 - Young people’s transitions from care to adulthood: The challenges of making international comparisons
Mike Stein & Emily R. Munro 67

SECTION B – CARE CONTINUUM

PART THREE – PSYCHOPATHOLOGY AND CHILD MALTREATMENT

12 - The developmental course of psychopathology from childhood into adulthood in general population and clinical samples
Frank Verhulst 73

13 - Rates, patterns and frequency of child maltreatment in Flanders
Hubert Van Puyenbroeck, Anne Vanden Berge & Ariane Van den Berghe 76

14 - Real world research on child abuse and neglect (CAN): The case of Greece and the Balkans
George Nikolaidis & Kiki Petroulaki 81

15 - Prevention of child neglect in Russia: Two case-studies of inter-agency work
Anastasia Milaya 84
16 - Child Abuse Inventory at Emergency Rooms (CHAIN-ER): Rationale and design
Judith Sittig, Cuno Uiterwaal, Edward Nieuwenhuis, Karel Moons & Elise van de Putte 87

17 - Socio-emotional development of pre-school children exposed to domestic violence: Understanding in order to promote better action
Nathalie Savard & Chantal Zaouche Gaudron 89

18 - First aid for children after domestic violence
Hanneke Rus & Jeannette ten Brug 91

19 - Child maltreatment, bullying in school and social support: A socio-psychological study of self-esteem and suicidal behaviour, based on a national sample of young people
Mogens N. Christoffersen 94

20 - Using forgiveness therapy to heal intra-familial child abuse: A case study
Itzhak Lander & Vered Slonim-Nevo 96

21 - Treatment of chronically sexual abused girls aged 12-23
Piet Strijker, Elly Voorintholt & Thirza van der Kamp 99

22 - A research study of the extent of responses to children in residential care being procured and sexually abused by people in the wider community
Richard Barker 102

23 - Returning abused and neglected children to their parents: Issues and outcomes
Elaine Farmer 103

PART FOUR – PREVENTION

24 - Increasing access for vulnerable children to kindergarten
Jane Caldwell 107

25 - Prevention in kindergarten and school through psychomotoric intervention
Nicole Bergstraesser & Amara Eckert 109
26 - Sozial-emotionale Kompetenzförderung im Vorschulalter für Risikokinder: Evaluation des Lubo-Programms
Clemens Hillenbrand & Annika Schell  111

27 - Meeting the needs of young children 0-4: A new framework for early childhood education and care in the Netherlands
Maartje Kok, Ineke Oenema-Mostert, Bianca Bijlsma-Smoorenburg & Alexander Minnaert  113

28 - The effectiveness of an individual preventive intervention for aggressive elementary school children: The ‘Stay Cool Kids’ program
Sabine Stoltz, Monique van Londen, Maja Deković, Bram Orobio de Castro & Peter Prinzie  116

29 - Long-term effectiveness and mechanisms of change of a multimodal program for treating behavioural problems of young children
Marc Delsing, Inge Bastiaanssen & Jan Willem Veerman  118

30 - Multi-method approach to disruptive behavioral problems with young children: Results after ten years of STOP 4-7 in Belgium and the Netherlands
Wim De Mey & Inge Bastiaanssen  121

31 - Examining the effectiveness of KIDS; a school-based preventive intervention program for children in divorce situations in the Netherlands
Inge van der Valk, Muriel van Doorn, Ed Spruijt, Wim Meeus & Maja Deković  123

32 - Supporting young people on the ‘edge’ of care: Lessons from a cross-European study
June Statham & Janet Boddy  126

33 - Preventive services for vulnerable adolescents: The use of respite residential placements as part of an integrated family support service
Jo Dixon  129

34 - Developing a comprehensive intervention for secondary prevention of criminal behaviour of adolescents in daily practice
Nadine Blokland, Janneke Metselaar & Corina de Wagt  131
35 - Revisiting gender based violence prevention
Sibylle Artz & Wassilis Kassis 133

PART FIVE – PARENTING AND PARENTING SUPPORT

36 - Understandings of parenting support: European perspectives
Janet Boddy & June Statham 139

37 - Very young children at risk: Parents’ capacity for change
Rebecca Brown & David Westlake 142

38 - Recognizing parenting strengths in vulnerable families
Jane Caldwell 144

39 - The ‘Incredible Years Parent Training Programme’ in families of preschoolers with disruptive behaviour symptoms: Does it work? Preliminary data with a clinical Portuguese sample
Andreia Azevedo, Maria J. Seabra-Santos, Maria F. Gaspar & Tatiana Carvalho Homem 147

40 - Supporting vulnerable parenthood in a school context: Effectiveness of an intervention program ‘thought with’ parents
Caterina Balenzano, Edvige Zatton & Giuseppe Moro 150

41 - Including fathers and supporting paternal sense of competence when treating young children’s adjustment problems in socio-economically disadvantaged families
Myriam Kettani, Chantal Zaouche Gaudron & Rachel Rodgers 153

42 - PMTO in the Netherlands: A research-based intervention aiming to decrease conduct disorder in children
Gonnie Albrecht & Emilie van Leeuwen 155

43 - Treatment and assessment of parenting capacities in a family psychiatric centre: Context, workings methods and research
Suzanna van de Loo, Hans Mulder, Hans Grietens, Erik J. Knorth & Piet Strijker 158
44 - Parental skills training within youth probation: Implementation and outcomes
Leonieke Boendermaker, Lianne Lekkerkerker & Maja Deković 161

PART six – FAMILY- AND SYSTEM-FOCUSED CARE

45 - Assessing care workers’ actions in home care for multi-problem families
Tim Tausendfreund, Jelte Conradie, Jana Knot-Dickscheit & Erik J. Knorth 165

46 - An additional language in working with families
Rik Prenen, Elke Gybels & Maurits Wysmans 168

47 - Homebuilders’ home-based intervention for families: Key strategies for achieving positive outcomes
Shelley Leavitt & Charlotte Booth 171

48 - Evaluation of an assertive outreach intervention for problem families: Characteristics of the target group, intervention methods and early outcomes
Carin Rots-de Vries, Ien van de Goor, Karien Stronks & Henk Garretsen 174

49 - A study into the effectiveness of the Portage Programme
Aafke Hoekstra, Bieuwe van der Meulen, Ineke Oenema-Mostert & Wied Ruijsenaars 177

50 - Needs-led and family-focused child and youth care: What’s really going on?
Janneke Metselaar, Erik J. Knorth, Peter M. van den Bergh & Tom A. van Yperen 180

51 - The effectiveness of an intensive home-visiting programme for multi-problem families
Denise Bodden & Maja Deković 183

52 - Multisystemic Therapy (MST) with Swedish conduct-disordered youth: Treatment outcomes two years after intake
Cecilia Andrée Löfholm & Ulla Jergeby 185
53 - Multidimensional Family Therapy (MDFT) for adolescents with multiple behavioural problems: A sequential treatment programme of residential and outpatient care
Kees Mos & Henk Rigter 188

54 - Kofa: A manualized programme for risk assessment and intervention in multiproblem families
Kitty Cassée & Barbara Los-Schneider 190

55 - Intensive Family Preservation Services (IFPS) in Flanders: New findings on a mixed-methods research design
Hubert Van Puyenbroeck, Gerrit Loots, Hans Grietens & Valentin Escudero 193

56 - Preventing children’s placement in residential care
Ksenia Limanskaya 195

57 - Positive outcomes of a ‘needs and perspective based’ group work program with disadvantaged families: Higher levels of parental reasoning
Kristien Nys 197

58 - ‘Thuis Opmaat’ [Tailored Care at Home]. Intensive guidance, treatment and accommodation with a family
Yvette de Beer, Walter Gerritsen & Jacqueline Santbergen 200

59 - Think Family. ‘Integrated Working’ approach to holistic interventions for families addressing parental risk factors
Moya Foster & Janet Berry 203

PART SEVEN – CHILD PROTECTION AND OUT-OF-HOME CARE

60 - Three positions of children in the child protection system; interconnectedness of decisions, services and social workers’ knowledge
Aino Ritala-Koskinen 205

61 - The relation between child protection and the welfare state: A study of Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden
Tarja Pösö, Anne-Dorthe Hestbek, Marit Skivenes & Madeleine Cocozza 208
62 - Pilot ‘Signs of Safety’: Working with ‘Signs of Safety’ within the Child Care and Protection Board
_Herman Klein & Arianne Geuze_ 210

63 - Can we predict the care environment for children in out-of-home care? Evidence from the Danish longitudinal study of children in out-of-home care
_Mette Lausten & Tine Egelund_ 213

64 - The variety of childcare trajectories of French youths having experienced out-of-home care
_Isabelle Frechon & Nicolas Robette_ 217

65 - Stability in out-of-home care; what’s in it - for whom?
_Øivin Christiansen & Toril Havik_ 218

66 - Breakdown in care for young people: Prevalence, experience, connections and explanations
_Turf Böcker Jakobsen_ 220

67 - From case files to narratives: Social workers evaluating the termination of care
_Tarja Pösö_ 223

68 - Long-term outcomes of placements in out-of-home care
_Rikke Fuglsang Olson, Tine Egelund & Mette Lausten_ 225

PART EIGHT – FOSTER CARE AND ADOPTION

69 - What we know and what we should know about short-term fostering?
_Anu-Riina Svenlin_ 229

70 - What affects the stability of long-term foster care?
_Nina Biehal_ 231

71 - Achieving permanence in foster care: Carers’ and children’s experiences
_Gillian Schofield & Emma Ward_ 233
72 - A research study on breakdown and foster adolescents’ development in long-term foster care
Simon van Oijen, Piet Strijker & Jana Knot-Dickscheit

73 - How to counteract and prevent foster home breakdown?
Elisabeth Backe-Hansen

74 - Behavioural problems, trauma and foster family characteristics: An exploratory study
Nicole Daus, Richelle van den Berg, Piet Strijker & Simon van Oijen

75 - The impact of foster children’s behavioural problems on Flemish foster mothers’ parental behaviour
Johan Vanderfaellie, Frank Van Holen & Lenny Trogh

76 - Foster care as a possibility for foster parents’ personal growth
Dalija Snieškienė & Orinta Antanavičienė

77 - Support needs of foster parents
Frank Van Holen & Johan Vanderfaellie

78 - The significance of birth parents during placement in foster families
Peter van den Bergh & Tonny Weterings

79 - Experiences of parents of children in foster care and implications for social work practice
Bente Moldestad & Dag Skilbred

80 - What makes foster carers and birth parents co-operate well? A comparison of kinship care and non-kinship foster care
Lajla Knudsen

81 - Liabilities and resources in the experience of foster children
Klaus Wolf, Judith Pierlings & Dirk Schäfer

82 - Foster care: What works?
Mariska de Baat, Leonieke Boendermaker & Carine Pots
83 - How the analysis of need supports decisions for an appropriate foster care and how this could increase effectiveness
   Cinzia Canali & Tiziano Vecchiato 264

84 - A support program addressed to youth in kinship foster care from the resilience perspective
   Nuria Fuentes-Peláez, Pere Amorós, Angels Balsells & Crescencia Pastor 267

85 - Professional foster care: Results of a new service for vulnerable children
   Teresa Bertotti, Michel Evans 272

86 - Towards an evaluation of family coaching within the Integral Foster Care model
   Harm Damen, Huub Pijnenburg & Ilona de Zeeuw Jans 274

87 - A Dutch intervention for young foster children under stress
   Hans van Andel, Piet Strijker, Rutger Jan van der Gaag, Hans Grietens & Erik J. Knorth 277

88 - Returning home: A study of reunification outcomes for separated children
   Elizabeth Fernandez & Jung-Sook Lee 280

89 - The influence of positive and negative psychosocial factors on the mental health of foster children
   Friedrich Linderkamp 287

90 - MTFC-P compared to TFC for young foster children with psychological problems
   Caroline C. Jonkman, Ramon J.L. Lindauer, Eva A. Bolle & Frits Boer 290

91 - Results of a randomized field trial of academic tutoring by foster parents of primary-school aged foster children
   Robert Flynn, Marie-Pierre Paquet & Robyn Marquis 292

92 - Respite care and mirror families: Promoting child and carer wellbeing in Victoria, Australia
   Patricia McNamara & Respite Care Project Consortium and Post Placement Support Service 295
93 - A programme for social adoption in Naples and the Campania Region
Giuseppe Cirillo, Paola Lamberti & Maddalena Poerio 298

94 - It’s a piece of cake? An evaluation of an adopter training programme
Julie Selwyn & Johnathan Pearce 301

95 - Outcome evaluation to support child and family policies:
The effectiveness of a particular form of open adoption
Caterina Balenzano, Rosalinda Cassibba, Giuseppe Moro &
Alessandro Costantini 302

PART NINE – RESIDENTIAL AND IN-PATIENT CARE

96 - ‘The orphaned asylum’: What contemporary child mental health care can learn from the unfulfilled promise of residential treatment in 20th century
America
James K. Whittaker 307

97 - Lessons learned about the policy and practice of group care from a study of children in public out-of-home care in 14 countries
June Thoburn 311

98 - Children in long-term residential care: Who are they and why are they still there?
Carme Montserrat, Mónica López, Jorge F. del Valle & Amaia Bravo 319

99 - Can the group still be a therapeutic milieu for children in residential care?
Hans Grietens, Ine Thys & Hanne Van den Bosch 315

100 - Information on what works and the development of effective interventions:
The case of residential care
Karen van Rooijen-Mutsaers & Leonieke Boendermaker 318

101 - Advancing residential care through evidence-based practice: Preliminary empirical tests of the CARE theory of change
Charles Izzo, Elliott Smith, Martha Holden, Michael Nunno & Jack Holden 321
0102 - Integrating a new theoretical approach into a child welfare agency: Learning from the Cornell CARE Program Model experience
James P. Anglin, Martha Holden & Michael Nunno  324

103 - Relations, relationships and relatedness: Residential child care and the family metaphor
Andrew Kendrick  327

104 - Attachment features of adolescents growing up in institutional care: Implications for ‘attachment’-based interventions
Gabriela Misca  330

105 - What is everyday child protection in children’s homes?
Riitta Laakso  333

106 - Learning opportunities in upbringing in residential care
Maren Zeller  335

107 - Re-visiting Life-Space Intervention, in light of the evidence
Carol Stuart & Kiaras Gharabaghi  337

108 - Life space crisis intervention at the Orthopaedagogical Centre St-Idesbald: Implementation and research
Bram Soenen & Annelies Volkaert  340

109 - Holding the Space: An evaluation of a therapeutic intervention with children and young people in residential care
Irene Stevens & Laura Steckley  343

110 - ‘Doing family’ in group homes: Discursive interactions at dinner in three Italian group homes
Marzia Saglietti  345

111 - Working with youths and families in residential care: Why, how and for what?
Esther Geurts, Erik J. Knorth & Marc Noom  348
112 - The implementation of the Social Competency Model in residential homes for young people with a mild intellectual disability
Jelle Drost

113 - Treatment of behavioural problems in a residential youth care setting: Effect on social competence level
Arianne N. Baanders

114 - Residential foster homes in Catalonia: The view of fostered adolescents
Anna Soldevila, Gemma Filella, Xavier Oriol, Antoni Peregrino, Josefina Sala, Andreu Villaba, Mercè Jariot, Montserrat Rodriguez, Maite Marzo, Isabel Alvarez, Laura Arnau & Nair Zarate

115 - Residential foster homes in Catalonia: The view of young people who were fostered
Merce Jariot, Josefina Sala, Andreu Villaba, Montserrat Rodriguez, Anna Soldevila, Gemma Filella, Maite Marzo, Isabel Alvarez, Laura Arnau, Xavier Oriol, Antoni Peregrino & Nair Zarate

116 - Beyond a Nordic model of residential care? Comparative perspectives on out-of-home care for young people in the Nordic countries
Turf Böcker Jakobsen & Tea Bengtsson

117 - Residential services in an Israeli context: Care facilities directors’ perspectives on youth in transition to adulthood
Anat Zeira

118 - The search for effective ingredients of residential care in a 'real world' youth care setting in the Netherlands
Inge Bastiaanssen & Jan Willem Veerman

119 - Goal directed and competency-based residential youth care: Challenges in daily practice
Elske Roel, Janneke Metselaar & Jeanne Kamp

120 - Goal attainment in residential youth care: A 5-year follow-up research
Ignace Vermaes, Karin Frissen & Gert Kroes
121 - Follow-up of long-term child psychiatric residential care
Jolanda Wielemaker & Fop Verheij  373

122 - Are adolescent inpatients on the life-course-persistent-pathway (LCP) really untreatable?
Sjouk de Boer  376

123 - Development and evaluation of the Individual Proactive Aggression management method for residential child psychiatry and child care
Marije Valenkamp, Fop Verheij, Jan Van der Ende, Frank Verhulst & Henk Nijman  379

124 - Young adults’ retrospective views as ‘out of home children’ in residential care. Towards a child-participative model of intervention
Valerio Belotti & Caterina Satta  382

125 - Higher aspirations, brighter futures: The National Residential Child Care Initiative in Scotland
Jennifer Davidson & Andrew Kendrick  384

126 - Participation of youth in residential care. Findings from a representative study of youth in residential care in Luxembourg
Ulla Peters  387

127 - Looking back: Elderly people’s memories about children’s homes
Tuija Eronen  389

Alina Frunza  391

129 - Functional development of the social educator task in foster residences
Teresa E. Marzo & Josefina Sala  394

130 - An integrated training/supervision methodology for care workers as a form of clinical intervention in residential foster care for children
Paola Bastianoni, Alessandro Taurino, Federico Zullo & Anna Bolognesi  397
131 - Follow-up in care of young children and their families
Liesbeth M. van den Berg & Ineke Oenema-Mostert  400

132 - Quality of life for young people in secure care
Tea Torbenfeldt Bengtsson & Mette Lausten  402

133 - What works for juvenile offenders?
Peer van der Helm, Geert Jan Stams & Peter van der Laan  405

134 - The downside up? A process- and evaluation study on care and treatment in a secure treatment centre in the Netherlands
Annemiek T. Harder, Margrite E. Kalverboer & Erik J. Knorth  407

PART TEN – LEAVING CARE, TRANSITION TO INDEPENDENCE AND ADULTHOOD

135 - A national needs assessment of adolescents on the verge of leaving a range of out of home arrangements
Rami Benbenishty  411

136 - A new framework of understanding care leavers’ transition to independent living
Gabriela Dima  413

137 - Young people leaving care in two Nordic countries
Yvonne Sjöblom, Ingrid Höjer & Jan Storø  415

138 - Transition to adulthood for young Swedish care leavers
Ingrid Höjer & Yvonne Sjöblom  418

139 - Transition within transition: from residential public care to independent living in a Romanian context
Roxana Anghel  420

140 - ‘Overcoming by Degrees’: Exploring the impact of measures intended to improve the experiences of care leavers in higher education
Georgia Hyde-Dryden  423
141 - An evaluation of Extended Care and Maintenance (ECM) as a support for transitions from public care in Ontario, Canada
Robert J. Flynn & Nicholas Tessier 425

142 - Pathways to education for former Swedish child welfare clients
Ingrid Höjer, Helena Johansson & Margreth Hill 428

143 - Adolescents’ readiness for independent living in youth villages in Israel
Anat Zeira 431

144 - Perceived readiness to leave care of adolescents in residential care in Israel
Tamar Dinisman 433

145 - Future expectations of adolescents in residential care in Israel
Yafit Sulimani-Aidan 436

146 - Care leavers and the transition to adult independence: A UK/Australia comparative study of responses to supporting young people leaving foster care
Caroline Cresswell 439

147 - Following up care leavers? Outcomes of a feasibility study
Isabelle Frechon, Pernelle Issenhuth & Géraldine Vivier 441

148 - Quality of life, social integration and health in adulthood for long-term foster care alumni: Links between past, care services and present
Annick Dumaret, Emilie Guerry & Monique Crost 444

149 - Former fostered children: How young adults recall their experience
Marco Ius, Paola Milani & Sara Serbati 447

150 - Innovations in Dutch transitional care for adolescents with chronic conditions
AnneLoes van Staa, Henk Sonneveld & Jeroen Havers 449
SECTION C – GENERAL ISSUES

Part eleven – Education and care

151 - Educating children in care: What have we learned?
David Berridge

152 - What are the problems in improving the participation in education of children in care?
Carme Montserrat & Ferran Casas

153 - The career development of young people in out-of-home care
Clare Tilbury, Peter Creed & Nick Buys

154 - Like a bull in a China shop. Behavioral literacy: Dimensions and implications
Mannfred Wittrock & Carmen Schmitz

155 - An effective intervention, but only temporarily so
Bernadette Tillard, Michèle Guigue, Delphine Bruggeman, Maryan Lemoine & Eric Lesur

156 - Change Agents: Working together to support the voice of youth
Kim Snow & Sherry Mosko

157 - Working with parents of vulnerable children: Can schooling issues be a basis for cooperation?
Hélène Milova

158 - Learning difficulties and competence in school
Anette Iversen, Hilde Hetland & Toril Havik

159 - Behavioral and academic outcomes for students with emotional and behavioral disorders in special education
Regina Stoutjesdijk & Evert M. Scholte

160 - Former welfare clients in prison: A focus on education
Hilde Hetland, Annette Iversen, Ole-Johan Eikeland & Terje Manger
161 - From school house to the court house: Criminalization of school misbehavior
Peter E. Leone

162 - The construction of a web-based program developed for teachers who experience difficulties in handling behavioral problems of elementary school children
Marieke Visser, Saskia Kunnen & Sippie Overwijk

163 - The effectiveness of the training programme ‘Happy at School’. A Randomized Controlled Trial
Saskia F. Mulder, Marleen Faber & Marcel A.G. van Aken

164 - Looking beyond the outcomes of a school-based social skills intervention program
Marieke Visser, Saskia Kunnen & Paul Van Geert

PART TWELVE – INTERCULTURAL ISSUES AND METHODS IN CARE

165 - The best interest of asylum-seeking children in legal decision-making procedures
Margrite E. Kalverboer, Elianne Zijlstra, Mijntje ten Brummelaar & Erik J. Knorth

166 - Preparation and planning for unaccompanied asylum-seeking and refugee young people leaving care in England
Jim Wade

167 - The reception of Unaccompanied Foreign Minors in Italy: Life stories of young people in residential care centres
Tommaso Fratini, Paola Bastianoni, Frederico Zullo, Alessandro Taurino & Anna Bolognesi

168 - Diversity in child and family care; the ZonMw 'Diversity in Youth Policy' Program
Tinneke Beirens, Frouwkje de Waart & Margo van den Berg
169 - A multicultural reflection of role perception (conflict and ambiguity) among youth care workers in Israel
Shlomo Romi & Simcha Getahun  501

170 - Evaluation of an intervention with ‘One and a half generations of minors from abroad’
Elisabetta Kolar & Marilena Sinigaglia  503

171 - International Social Service (ISS) as a global partnership to protect and promote the best interest of the child in international family conflict and breakdown: Context and challenges in inter-country adoption
Hans van Hooft & Hervé Boechat  506

172 - Te Whare Io: An indigenous social work framework
Joanne Rosandich & Frank Rosandich  508

173 - Some features of emotionality of preadolescents whose parents work abroad
Roxana Urea  511

PART THIRTEEN – EVALUATING CHILD AND FAMILY CARE

174 - Models of outcome and implicit knowledge of practitioners
Thomas Gabriel & Samuel Keller  515

175 - Value-orientations in child welfare interventions: A case study of Triple P
Marit Hopman, Micha de Winter & Willem Koops  517

176 - Effective child protection. Which elements of intervention were seen to be related to desired outcomes in the Netherlands between 1945 and 2005?
Marieke Dekker, Jeroen Dekker, Erik J. Knorth & Greetje Timmerman  520

177 - What makes good prevention-programs? A quantitative and qualitative analysis of ‘Best Practice’ in child prevention-programs for vulnerable children and youth in risk of placement in out-of-home care
Anne-Kirstine Mølholt, Mette Lausten, Helle Hansen & Vibeke Myrup Jensen  522
178 - Evidence-based practice meets practice-based evidence: Rationale and utilization of a developmental model for evaluating youth care
Jan Willem Veerman, Tom A. van Yperen, Bas Bijl & Dries Roosma 525

179 - Effective interventions: A productive combination of evidence-based practice and practice-based evidence
Marian de Graaf 527

180 - Effectiveness in residential youth care: Describing, substantiating and then?
Marjan I. de Lange & Mariska van der Steege 530

181 - How to construct the program theory of interventions in youth and family care
Germie van den Berg & Arga Kramer 533

182 - Randomised controlled evaluations of family-focused child and youth care: The pot of gold at the end of the evidence-based rainbow?
Daniëlle Jansen, Karin Vermeulen, Annemieke Luinge, Erik J. Knorth, Erik Buskens & Menno Reijneveld 536

183 - Routine Outcome Monitoring: A tool for understanding what works for whom and why
Marc Noom, Monica Markus, Frans Zitman & Robert Vermeiren 538

184 - Routine outcome monitoring in child and family care
Gert Kroes 540

185 - Reinforce social workers in assessing, planning and monitoring home care interventions
Sara Serbati, Paola Milani & Gianmaria Gioga 543

186 - Co-building of tools to assess, project and monitor interventions with children out of their homes and away from their families
Paola Milani, Valerio Belotti, Marco Ius, Sara Serbati & Caterina Satta 546

187 - Benchmark on achievement indicators
Esther Geurts, Tom A. van Yperen & Erik-Jan de Wilde 549
188 - Risk facing children: A multisite outcome-based research study in Italy
   Tiziano Vecchiato & Cinzia Canali

189 - Systematic implementation of interventions leads to more effective interventions in practice
   Karlijn Stals, Tom A. van Yperen, Wouter Reid & Geert Jan Stams

190 - Learning from our daily practice
   Carolien Konijn

191 - Developing outpatient family care in daily practice
   Pauline Benneker, Janneke Metselaar & Detta Mellema

192 - HomeProof: Evaluation of youth care arrangements in daily practice
   Dörte Roblfs, Janneke Metselaar & Corina de Wagt

193 - What works in the assessment and decision-making process with children and their families?
   Cora Bartelink & Ingrid ten Berge

194 - Making sure youth care works: Towards a coalition of common and specific factors
   Huub Pijnenburg

195 - Common and specific ingredients of youth care: Enhancing the effectiveness in practice
   Tom A. van Yperen & Mariska van der Steege

196 - What and who works in youth care? An exploratory follow-up study
   Inge van der Tak, Ton Meeuwsen & Huub Pijnenburg

197 - The role of client-therapist alliance in effective youth care
   Wybren Grooteboer, Tos Polak & Huub Pijnenburg

198 - Relational professionalism: An empirical study of working alliances with parents in child and youth care
   Stefan Königter
199 - Calculating and comparing the costs of public care for children
Harriet Ward, Lisa Holmes & David Westlake
581

200 - Cost-effectiveness of child and youth care
Karin Vermeulen, Daniëlle Jansen, Annemieke Luinge, Erik Buskens,
Erik J. Knorth & Menno Reijneveld
584

PART FOURTEEN – ASSESSMENT METHODOLOGIES

201 - Risky business; the practice of risk assessment with young people who may need a placement in secure accommodation in Scotland
Autumn Roesch-Marsh
587

202 - Adaptive developmental assessment of young children with cognitive and/or functional impairments
Selma Ruiter, Linda Visser, Bieuwe van der Meulen, Marieke Timmerman
& Wied Ruijssenaars
589

203 - Measurement of effective parenting by means of the Parenting
Questionnaire
Daphne van Loon & Bieuwe F. van der Meulen
593

204 - Psychometric properties of the Behavior Inhibition Questionnaire:
A brief measure of anxiety vulnerability in children
Leonie Vreeke & Peter Muris
595

205 - Assessing children’s satisfaction with child and youth care:
The Smiley 9-12 Questionnaire
Anne-Marie N. Huyghen, Ilonka N. Von Rudnay, Janneke Metselaar &
Erik J. Knorth
598

206 - Towards a taxonomy of care for youth: A synthesis of the literature
Els Evenboer, Anne-Marie N. Huyghen, Jolanda Tuinstra, Pieter Hoekstra,
Janneke Metselaar, Andrea de Winter, Menno Reijneveld & Erik J. Knorth
601
PART FIFTEEN – PROFESSION AND ORGANISATION

207 - The social worker. An ‘intentional resilience tutor’
Marco Ius & Paola Milani 605

208 - ‘It’s all about surviving’; coping strategies among staff in residential child care
Laila Dreyer Espersen 607

209 - The role of managers in promoting child and adolescent care services performance. A multidimensional model from practice
Silvio Premoli 610

210 - Very young children at risk: Interagency working
David Westlake & Rebecca Brown 613

211 - Multifunctional centres: Flexible, tailor-made care in Flanders’ special youth assistance
Kim Craeynest 616

PART SIXTEEN – SPECIFIC GROUPS, INTERVENTIONS AND TECHNIQUES

212 - Resilience factors in youngsters convicted of juvenile offences
Eduardo Martín, Dolores García & Ángela Torbay 619

213 - Family factors that promote resilience in youngsters convicted of juvenile offences
Dolores García, Eduardo Martín & Ángela Torbay 622

214 - The treatment unit in the closed juvenile institution ‘De Hutten’
Chris Smolders & Magda Massoels 624

215 - Main findings and insights from an evaluation study of four models of centers for youth at risk
Liat Vazan-Sikron & Paula Kahan-Strawczynski 627
216 - WRITEjunior; cognitive behavioral writing therapy for children (4-18 years old) with PTSD
Saskia van der Oord & Sacha Lucassen 630

217 - A training of learning skills for adolescents with ADHD (LeJA): Empirically based conceptualization and first findings of efficacy
Timo Hennig & Satyam A. Schramm 633

218 - Social skills training for peer rejected and neglected adolescents
Jorūnė Vyšniauskytė-Rimkienė 635

219 - Developmental drama therapy: A treatment model for adolescents with anxiety and mood complaints
Huub Notermans, Tom van Yperen, Walter Matthys, Henk Smeijsters 637

220 - Make-up and analysis of barriers and facilitators in participation and interaction of students with a hearing impairment: A basic study to improve studying at the universities of Oldenburg, Groningen, Hamburg and Utrecht
Gerold Jacobs & Gisela Schulze 639

221 - Let’s talk about sex: Rationale for a new board game for adolescents with chronic conditions
Heleen van der Stege & AnneLoes van Staa 642

222 - Activate! Tools and tricks to increase adolescent participation during consultations
AnneLoes van Staa, Susan Jedeloo & Sander Hilberink 644

223 - The opportunities and implications of technology: Updating life story work for use with a technologically proficient generation
Simon Hammond 647
Acknowledgements 651
Editors 653
Authors Index 655