

Table of contents

List of Abbreviations	II
Definitions	13
Preface	21
Chapter 1	23
General principles to Investor-State Arbitration	23
1. Arbitration in general: differences with other forms of dispute resolution	25
2. Types of arbitration	29
2.1 International Commercial Arbitration	29
2.2 Investor-State Arbitration	30
2.3 State – State Disputes	30
2.3.1 Diplomatic protection	31
2.3.2 Direct disputes between States	33
2.4 Difference between institutional arbitration and ad hoc arbitration	33
3. The legal framework of investment arbitration	38
3.1. Procedural rules	38
3.1.1. ICSID	38
3.1.2. ICSID Convention	38
3.1.3. UNCITRAL	39
3.1.4. UNCITRAL Rules on Transparency in Treaty-based Investor State Arbitration	41
3.2. Jurisdictional grounds	42
3.2.1. Bilateral Investment Treaties (BIT)	43
3.2.2. Multilateral Investment Treaties, Regional and Sectoral agreements	46
3.3. Other rules applicable	54
3.3.1. The New York Convention	54

TABLE OF CONTENTS

3.3.2.	Main principles of interpretation and application of BITs in Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties (VCLT)	55
3.3.3.	Soft Law: The IBA rules of conduct in international arbitration	57
4.	The course of an investment arbitration	59
4.1.	Issues to consider before an investment arbitration proceeding	59
4.2.	Initiating an investment arbitration	61
4.2.1.	Notice of Claim	61
4.2.2.	Request for Arbitration	62
4.3.	Composition of an arbitral tribunal	66
4.3.1.	Appointment Procedure	66
4.3.2.	Eligibility Requirements	68
4.3.3.	Disqualification of an Arbitrator	70
4.4.	Phases of an Investment Arbitration	72
4.4.1.	Jurisdiction Phase	73
4.4.2.	Merits Phase	73
5.	Recent Landmark Cases	74
5.1	Yukos case	74
5.2	Vattenfall case	75
6.	Current Issues in Investment Arbitration	76
6.1.	Intra-EU Arbitration	76
6.2.	Financial crisis and investment arbitration	81
6.3.	Public participation in investment arbitration	82
6.4.	Criticism of ISDS mechanism	84
6.5.	Withdrawing from the ISDS system	87
6.5.1.	Not ratifying/signing the ICSID Convention	87
6.5.2.	Denunciation of the ICSID Convention	88
6.5.3.	Withdrawal from the current BITs	89
Chapter 2		91
Standards of Protection in International Investment Agreements		91
I.	The Fair and Equitable Treatment (FET)	92
I.1.	The lack of uniform definition of FET	92
I.2.	Relevant cases regarding FET's substantive content	98
I.2.1.	Prohibition of manifest arbitrariness in decision-making, that is, measures taken purely on the basis of prejudice or bias without a legitimate purpose or rational explanation	99
I.2.2.	Prohibition of the denial of justice and disregard of the

fundamental principles of due process	100
1.2.3. Prohibition of targeted discrimination on manifestly wrongful grounds, such as gender, race or religious belief	101
1.2.4. Prohibition of abusive treatment of investors, including coercion, duress and harassment	102
1.2.5. Protection of the legitimate expectations of investors arising from a government's specific representations or investment inducing measures, although balanced with the host State's right to regulate in the public interest	103
1.3. Uncertainties and risks	106
1.3.1. A lack of predictability as to what kinds of actions will infringe upon it	106
1.3.2. The indeterminacy of the threshold of liability under the FET standard	108
1.3.3. The need for effective balancing of interests	109
2. The Full Protection and Security Clause	113
2.1. Definition	113
2.2. Application by arbitral tribunals	115
2.3. Link with FET standard	121
3. Umbrella clauses	126
3.1. Definition	126
3.2. Application by arbitral tribunals	127
3.2.1. MIT application	127
3.2.2. BIT application	128
4. National Treatment	135
4.1. Definition	135
4.2. Application by arbitral tribunals	137
4.2.1. Was the investor in 'like circumstances'?	137
4.2.2. Was the investor treated in a discriminatory fashion?	139
4.2.3. Is there a legitimate justification to discriminatory treatment?	139
4.2.4. Is national treatment applicable in the pre or post-establishment period of the investor?	140
5. The Most-Favoured Nation (MFN) clause	141
5.1. Definition	141
5.2. Application by arbitral tribunals	144
5.2.1. Temporal and material scope of MFN clauses	144
5.2.2. Application to dispute settlement provisions	145

TABLE OF CONTENTS

5.3. Interim conclusion	150
6. Expropriation	151
6.1. Definition	151
6.2. Application by arbitral tribunals	155
6.3. Legal threshold for indirect expropriation	156
6.4. Conclusion of Chapter II	162
Chapter 3	165
Jurisdiction and admissibility in Investor-State arbitration and types of juridical objections	165
1. The Consent of the Parties	166
1.1 Domestic courts' jurisdiction	174
1.2 Ad hoc Arbitration and Administered Arbitration	175
1.2.1 The arbitration procedural rules	176
1.2.2 The scope of the disputes submitted to arbitration	176
1.2.3 The seat of the arbitration	178
1.2.4 The language of the arbitration	179
1.2.5 The applicable law	179
1.2.6 The method of appointment, number and qualifications of the arbitrators that conduct the arbitration proceeding	180
2. The Procedural Conditions to Consent	184
2.1. Amicable Negotiations or Waiting Period Provisions	185
2.2 Fork-in-the-Road Clauses	187
2.3 The Requirement of Exhaustion of Local Judicial Remedies	191
3. Jurisdiction contrasted with Arbitrability and Admissibility	194
3.1 Arbitrability	195
3.2. Admissibility	197
4. The scope of Jurisdiction in Investment Arbitration	202
4.1. MFN Clauses	202
4.2. Umbrella Clauses	205
5. Jurisdictional Requirements under UNCITRAL Rules	205
6. Additional Jurisdictional Requirements under the ICSID Convention	207
7. Jurisdiction Ratione Personae	208
7.1. Contracting State party	209
7.2. Nationality of Investors	211

7.3. Nationality of Legal Entities	215
7.4. The Concept of Foreign Control	216
8. Jurisdiction Ratione Materiae	220
7.1. A Dispute	220
7.2. A Legal Dispute	221
7.3. A Dispute Arising Directly Out of an Investment	221
7.4. An Investment	222
9. Jurisdiction Ratione Loci	231
10. Jurisdiction Ratione Temporis	233
11. Objections to Jurisdiction	236
11.1. Kompetenz – Kompetenz	237
11.2. Decision on Jurisdiction: Bifurcation	238
11.3. Invalidity of Consent and the Doctrine of Separability	240
 Chapter 4	 241
The Award	241
1. Binding and Final	241
1.1. No binding precedent	242
1.2. No review by domestic courts or ICJ	243
1.3. Difference between Recognition, Enforcement and Execution	243
2. Difference between recognition, enforcement and execution	244
2.1. Recognition as a defensive process	245
2.2. Recognition leading to enforcement	246
2.3. Recognition and Enforcement	249
2.3.1. Role of the World Bank	250
2.3.2. ICSID and Non ICSID Arbitration	250
2.3.3. Recognition and enforcement of an annulled award	253
2.3.4. Recognition and Enforcement of non-ICSID Awards	254
2.3.5. Recognition or confirmation of award in the state of the arbitral seat	256
2.3.6. Recognition or confirmation outside the arbitral seat	257
2.3.7. Enforcement under New York Convention	259
2.3.8. Enforcement under Other Multilateral or Bilateral Treaties	265
2.3.9. Enforcement under the Local Arbitration Law	266
2.3.II. State Immunity	278

TABLE OF CONTENTS

3. Challenge and review in ICSID arbitration	283
3.1. Supplement and rectification	284
3.2. Interpretation	287
3.3. Revision	289
3.4. Grounds for Annulment	291
3.5. Annulment procedure	297
3.6. Ad hoc committees' approaches to annulment applications	299
3.7. Resubmission to new tribunal after annulment	303
3.8. Stay of enforcement pending review	304
4. Challenge and review in non-ICSID arbitration	308
4.1. Correction, Interpretation and Supplement of non-ICSID Awards	309
4.2. Annulment of non-ICSID Award	309
5. Comparing grounds for annulment under ICSID and grounds for refusal of recognition and enforcement under New York Convention	316
6. Third party funding	316
7. Vulture Funds	319
7.1. General overview of sovereign debt restructuring under the investor state dispute regime	319
7.2. Implications resulting from the decision in Abaclat and others v Argentina	320
7.3. Measures taken under local law to restrict vulture fund activities	322
7.4. State Immunity Law in Belgium	323
Annex 1. ICSID Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States	325
Annex 2. ICSID Additional Facility Rules	377
Annex 3. Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards done at New York, on 10 June 1958	413
Annex 4. Energy Charter Treaty	417
Annex 5. North American Free Trade Agreement	427
Annex 6. The Central America Free Trade Agreement [...]	443
Annex 7. Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership	463
Index	489
About the authors	495