

International Journal of Child and Family Welfare

2015, 16 (1/2)

Introduction

- Supporting children when providing services to families experiencing multiple problems:
Perspectives and evidence on programmes
Erik J. Knorth, Jana Knot-Dickscheit & June Thoburn 2

Perspectives

- Children in families experiencing multiple problems:
Advancing a main challenge
Tim Tausendfreund & Jana Knot-Dickscheit 11
- Authoritative practice with child neglect:
Integrating family support and child protection
Brigid M. Daniel 22

Evidence

- Safety for children first:
Focus on children in Intensive Family Case Management
Inge Busschers & Leonieke Boendermaker 40
- Turning points or turning around:
Family Coach Work with 'troubled families'
*Marian Brandon, Penny Sorensen, June Thoburn, Sue Bailey
& Sara Connolly* 57
- PoupArte: A collaborative programme to empower low-income vulnerable families
Sofia Rodrigues, Madalena Alarcão & Liliana Sousa 78
- Services to prevent children coming unnecessarily into care:
A cross-national perspective
Anat Zeira, Cinzia Canali, Tiziano Vecchiato & June Thoburn 95
- The more the better: Adherence to programme elements of Families
First in the Netherlands reduces the risk of out-of-home placement
Harm Damen & Jan W. Veerman 113